Job Opportunity

Farm Administrator (Part-Time) at The Watership Down Partnership, North Hampshire
Hours: 20-24 hours per week (Flexible). The Watership Down Partnership is a 1,650-hectare working farm in North Hampshire, made up of a diverse mix of arable farming, sheep, bloodstock, woodland, small shoot, residential lettings, and a small amount of external contracting operations.

We are currently seeking a highly organized and reliable Farm Administrator to join our team on a part-time basis working in our onsite office. If you have a passion for agriculture and enjoy supporting operations behind the scenes, this is the perfect opportunity for you.

Key Responsibilities:

- General Administration: Handle office operations, including answering phone calls, managing emails, logging staff time sheets.
- Farm Record Keeping: Maintain and organise records related to our varied operations (arable, livestock, etc.) and ensure everything is up to date.
- Financial Support: Paying and raising invoices, VAT returns submission, preparation of accounts for year end, Monthly bank reconciliations.
- Supplier and Vendor Coordination: Manage communication with suppliers, contractors, and assist in order processing.
- Scheduling & Coordination: Property maintenance, coordinating with staff.
- Health & Safety Records: Ensure farm safety documentation is up to date and assist with compliance.

What we offer:

- Competitive Pay: Remuneration based on experience.
- Supportive Work Environment: Work with a friendly and dynamic team on a diverse and expansive farm.
- Learning Opportunities: Gain insight into the different operations of a large working farm, including arable farming, livestock, and woodland management.

Send your resume and a brief covering letter to Harry White, farm@watership.co.uk
